

Internship Experience Certificate

This letter confirms that Sanosh Jacob has conducted his internship at NeuroTech, NT Labs Pvt Ltd. He's been a Software Developer Intern from 1st May 2023 to 30th June 2023. NeuroTech specialises in building Brainwave mapping wearables.

Sanosh was carefully selected from a diverse pool of candidates, both from his college and other institutions. During his two-month tenure, he dedicated his efforts to the advancement of the software stack used at the firm

Sanosh played a pivotal role in the development of Webapp including handling both frontend and backend technologies. He was also instrumental in designing the software database architecture and implementing a cloud-based analysis system which improved the overall efficiency of our signal processing and insight generation.

Sanosh consistently demonstrated a high level of maturity and workmanship, fully embracing the responsibilities of his tasks and delivering exceptional results, all while effectively managing his academic coursework. He also led the software intern team often served as the sole point of communication between the leadership and his teammates.

At NeuroTech, we extend our best wishes to Sanosh for his future career endeavours. His exceptional qualities undoubtedly position him as a valuable asset to any team. Should you have any inquiries regarding his internship, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.
